

The following email was sent to certain key customers of Allego Holding B.V. on July 28, 2021.

Dear Valued Partner,

I am pleased to share with you some exciting news about our company: today we announced that Allego plans to go public and the combined company will list on the New York Stock Exchange through a business combination with Spartan Acquisition Corp. III ("Spartan") (NYSE: SPAQ).

This highly strategic transaction will provide Allego with significant additional financial resources that will enable us to fund the deployment of new public charging sites, build out our technology moat, and execute on our expansion plans. We intend to remain intensely focused on delivering public fast and ultra-fast networks and charging solutions and maintaining our commitment to operating and deploying charging solutions to our customers. We look forward to deploying our increased capital to become stronger partners to you. The transaction is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including certain regulatory approvals and the approval of Spartan's stockholders.

While our company's ownership structure will change upon close of the transaction, we will continue to operate as "Allego" under my continued direction as Chief Executive Officer, with the support of our experienced management team, and our current sole shareholder, Meridiam, which intends to remain a significant shareholder and expects to roll its entire holdings into the newly public company, as it believes in our team and our future. The newly combined company is expected to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the new ticker symbol "ALLG" and will be positioned to grow with new financial resources as a public company.

As we enter into this new phase, we will remain focused on execution and operational excellence as we want to continue to provide our strategic partners and customers with a great experience utilizing our leading pan-European electric charging network.

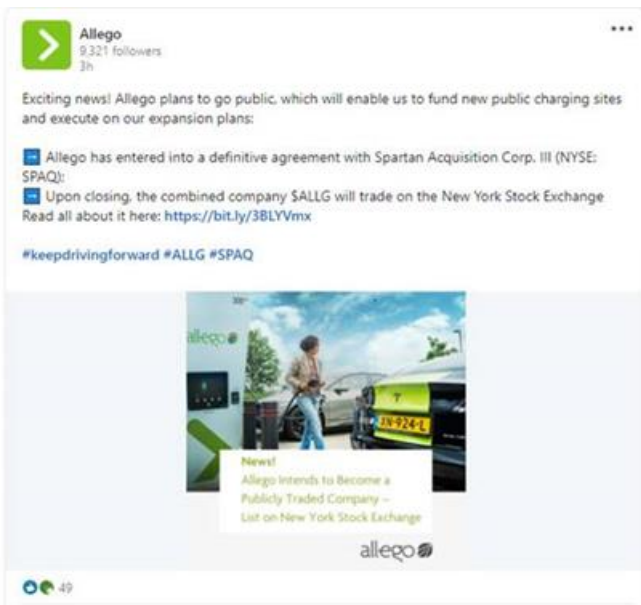

Thank you for being a great partner. For more information, you can view a press release on this announcement below. Please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions.

Sincerely,
Mathieu Bonnet
CEO of Allego

These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to serve as, and must not be relied on by any investor as, a guarantee, an assurance, a prediction or a definitive statement of fact or probability. Spartan Acquisition Corp. III’s (“Spartan”) and Allego Holding B.V.’s, a Dutch private limited liability company (“Allego”), actual results may differ from their expectations, estimates, and projections and, consequently, you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “project,” “budget,” “forecast,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “predicts,” “potential,” “continue,” and similar expressions (or the negative versions of such words or expressions) are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, Spartan’s and Allego’s expectations with respect to future performance and anticipated financial impacts of the proposed business combination, the satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions to the proposed business combination, and the timing of the completion of the proposed business combination.

These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially, and potentially adversely, from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. Most of these factors are outside Spartan’s and Allego’s control and are difficult to predict. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to: (i) the occurrence of any event, change, or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Business Combination Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the “BCA”); (ii) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Athena Pubco B.V., a Dutch limited liability company (the “Company”) and/or Allego following the announcement of the BCA and the transactions contemplated therein; (iii) the inability to complete the proposed business combination, including due to failure to obtain approval of the stockholders of Spartan, certain regulatory approvals, or the satisfaction of other conditions to closing in the BCA; (iv) the occurrence of any event, change, or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the BCA or could otherwise cause the transaction to fail to close; (v) the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on Allego’s business and/or the ability of the parties to complete the proposed business combination; (vi) the inability to obtain or maintain the listing of the Company’s common shares on the New York Stock Exchange following the proposed business combination; (vii) the risk that the proposed business combination disrupts current plans and operations as a result of the announcement and consummation of the proposed business combination; (viii) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the proposed business combination, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of Allego to grow and manage growth profitably, and to retain its key employees; (ix) costs related to the proposed business combination; (x) changes in applicable laws or regulations; and (xi) the possibility that Allego, Spartan or the Company may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. The foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. Additional information concerning certain of these and other risk factors is contained in Spartan’s most recent filings with the SEC and will be contained in the registration statement on Form F-4 (the “Form F-4”), including the proxy statement/prospectus forming a part thereof expected to be filed in connection with the proposed business combination. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning Spartan, Allego or the Company, the transactions described herein or other matters and attributable to Spartan, Allego, the Company or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. Each of Spartan, Allego and the Company expressly disclaims any obligations or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in their expectations with respect thereto or any change in events, conditions, or circumstances on which any statement is based, except as required by law.
